PRELIMINARY AMENDMENT

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Before examination of the above application, please enter the Preliminary
Amendment set out below.

IN THE CLAIMS

Please cancel pending claims 1-3. Please add the following new claims:

4. (New) A method for determining the system-independent permittivity of a molecular event, the method comprising:

- a.) providing a detection structure configured to produce output parameters when electromagnetically coupled to a reference or test sample,
- b.) defining one or more permittivity coefficients using two or more calibration solutions,
- c.) computing the difference between the output parameters obtained when the detection structure is electromagnetically coupled to the reference and test sample, and
